

Optional Group Life Insurance (OGLI)

Invitation to Add a Benefit

What is Optional Life Insurance?

Optional life insurance is extra coverage, beyond regular death benefits, for employees, their spouses and children. Employees decide how much coverage they need and pay for the cost through payroll deduction. You remit those premiums monthly through the employer web portal (EWP).

If you add the OGLI benefit now, your employees can participate in open enrollment in April. See the OGLI web page for more details.
